

Check to protect

Simple steps we can take now to minimize the chances of serious illness and community spread of respiratory illness:

Make sure you and your family members' COVID vaccinations are up to date

Get a flu shot

Wear a mask indoors in crowded public spaces and when physical distancing cannot be maintained

Screen for respiratory symptoms daily and stay home if you are ill

Wash your hands, often, particularly when out in public

